Members, Board of Trustees:

ASSISTANT DEAN OF ADMISSIONS AND STUDENT AFFAIRS
EMERITUS BE CONFERRED POSTHUMOUSLY UPON
DANIEL C. SEAVER

Recommendation: that Mr. Dan C. Seaver be named Assistant Dean of Admissions and Student Affairs Emeritus posthumously in recognition of his long service and dedication to University of Kentucky students for more than 29 years.

Background: In 1973, Mr. Seaver began his career as Director of Admissions and Student Affairs at Lexington Technical Institute (now Lexington Community College). Mr. Seaver continued his career in student service during his employment with the University of Kentucky Admissions Office and with the College of Allied Health Professions. From 1986 until his recent death, Mr. Seaver was responsible for admissions and academic and students affairs in the College of Dentistry. He served as Assistant Dean of Admissions and Student Affairs and Assistant Adjunct Professor in the Department of Oral Health Sciences. Mr. Seaver's advocacy for students is evident by his service on many committees at the University, the Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, the American Dental Education Association, and the American Dental Association. His strong advocacy for students was evident from his participation in the College's chapters of the American Student Dental Organization, the Student National Dental Association, the Hispanic Dental Association, the American Association of Dental Research, Student Research Group, and the American Association of Women Dentists. Throughout his life, Mr. Seaver was a true leader and role model for students, colleagues, alumni, faculty, and friends. He was the devoted husband of Cynthia Womack Seaver and the proud father of daughter Nancy and twin sons James and Robert.
